

CITY OF NAPA
PROCLAMATION

In Recognition of Juneteenth

WHEREAS, our country is made up of people from every nation on earth, who are declared equal not only in freedom but also in justice, both of which are essential for a healthy human civilization; and

WHEREAS, on January 1, 1863, using his war powers as President, Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation, providing that all persons held as slaves within any State or designated part of a State “shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free;” and

WHEREAS, the Emancipation Proclamation made the permanent abolition of slavery a Union war aim and provided the legal framework for the emancipation of nearly all four million slaves as the Union armies advanced; and

WHEREAS, on June 19, 1865, almost 2 ½ years after the Emancipation Proclamation was executed, Major General Gordon Granger arrived in Galveston, Texas, and announced the end of both the Civil War and slavery; and

WHEREAS, Texans began the celebration of Juneteenth in 1866, with community events such as parades, cookouts, prayer gatherings, musical performances and historical cultural readings; some communities purchased land for Juneteenth celebrations, such as Emancipation Park in Houston, TX; and as freed families emigrated from Texas to other parts of the United States, they carried the Juneteenth celebration with them; and

WHEREAS, Al Edwards, a freshman Texas state representative, put forward the bill, H.B. 1016, in 1979 making Texas the first state to grant this emancipation celebration and adopting Juneteenth as an official Texas state holiday; and

WHEREAS, on June 17, 2021, President Joe Biden signed a bill establishing Juneteenth National Independence Day as the twelfth federal public holiday, and the first one established since Martin Luther King, Jr.’s birthday was recognized in 1983; and

WHEREAS, Napa recognizes Juneteenth as a day of reflection and remembrance and an opportunity to truthfully learn about and acknowledge this period in our history, seek to understand the experience of others, and commit ourselves to significant and lasting improvements in the City of Napa and in the United States.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Scott Sedgley, Mayor of the City of Napa, along with the City Council, do hereby proclaim June 19th, 2024, as the Juneteenth National Independence Day, and call upon our community to seek to understand the experience of others, and commit to significant and lasting improvements in the City of Napa and in the United States.

Dated: June 18, 2024

SCOTT SEDGLEY, MAYOR
CITY OF NAPA
