

CITY OF NAPA
PROCLAMATION
Women’s History Month
March 2026

WHEREAS, during Women’s History Month, we remind ourselves about the vast contributions women have made towards society, culture, and history. The theme for 2026 Celebration of Women’s History Month is Leading the Change: Women Shaping a Sustainable Future; and

WHEREAS, women have long been at the forefront of environmental stewardship—often leading efforts to protect natural resources, safeguard public health, and champion sustainable practices that ensure a livable future for generations to come; and

WHEREAS, these women—whether working in grassroots organizations, volunteer networks, local advisory boards or in elected office—bring vision, dedication, and compassion to the urgent work of addressing climate change and building sustainable, equitable communities; and

WHEREAS, their leadership strengthens civic engagement and the impact of their advocacy extends far beyond environmental outcomes, contributing to healthier neighborhoods, stronger social bonds, and a shared sense of responsibility for the wellbeing of both people and planet; and

WHEREAS, the Napa community is fortunate to have inspiring women within our community that have immense passion and dedication for working towards a sustainable future. Today, we recognize their leadership and contributions to the City of Napa; and

WHEREAS, as we celebrate Women’s History Month, we are reminded about the women who have changed the course of history by breaking barriers and building bridges through education and mentorship.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Scott Sedgley, Mayor of the City of Napa, along with the City Council, do hereby recognize March 2026 as Women’s History Month, a time to honor and celebrate the women who connect, educate, and lead.

Dated: March 03, 2026

SCOTT SEDGLEY, MAYOR
CITY OF NAPA